NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is effective as the date set forth below, and entered into by Stripe, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Stripe") and the Recipient identified in the signature block below.

Background

A. Stripe and Recipient, for their mutual benefit and pursuant to a business relationship which has been or may be established, anticipate that Stripe may disclose or deliver to Recipient certain Confidential Information (as defined below); and

B. In order to protect the confidentiality and limit the use of the Confidential Information and to induce Stripe to disclose such information, the parties desire to enter into this Agreement.

Agreement

1. As used in this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means any and all non-public information relating to Stripe's or its affiliates business (including, without limitation, computer programs, technical drawings, algorithms, know-how, formulas, processes, ideas, inventions (whether patentable or not), technology, finances, customers, plans, product developments, forecasts, strategies or other information) that has been or is in the future disclosed to or received by Recipient.

2. Recipient shall hold in confidence, and not disclose to others or use for Recipient's own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any Confidential Information that is disclosed to Recipient by Stripe. Recipient shall disclose Confidential Information received under this Agreement to persons within its organization only if such persons (i) have a need to know and (ii) are obligated to protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in a manner consistent with this Agreement and are aware that such information is confidential to Stripe. This Section 2 survives termination of this Agreement.

3. The undertakings and obligations of Recipient under this Agreement shall not apply to any Confidential Information which: (i) is (through no improper action or inaction by the Receiving Party or any affiliate, agent, consultant or employee) generally available to the public, or (ii) was in Recipient's possession or known by it without restriction prior to receipt from Stripe, or (iii) was rightfully disclosed to it by a third party, or (iv) was independently developed without use of or reference to any Confidential Information by Recipient or Recipient's employees who have had no access to such information. Recipient may make disclosures required by law or court order provided that Recipient uses diligent reasonable efforts to limit disclosure and to obtain confidential treatment or a protective order and has allowed the Stripe to participate in the proceeding.

4. Title to all property received by Recipient from Stripe, including all Confidential Information, shall remain at all times the sole property of Stripe, and this Agreement shall not be construed to grant to Recipient any patents, licenses or similar rights to such property and Confidential Information disclosed to Recipient hereunder.

5. Recipient shall, upon request of Stripe, return to Stripe all documents, drawings and other tangible materials, including all Confidential Information and all manifestation thereof, delivered to Recipient, and all copies and reproductions thereof.

6. If any of the provisions of this Agreement are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that provisions will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect. This Agreement will be governed by the law of the State of California without regard to the conflicts of law provisions thereof to the contrary. This Agreement supersedes all prior discussions and writings and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. The prevailing party in any action to enforce this Agreement will be entitled to costs and attorneys' fees. No waiver or modification of this Agreement will be binding upon a party unless made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of such party and no failure or delay in enforcing any right will be deemed a waiver.
